

Capital City Vipers Youth Hockey Club Code of Conduct (Rules for Players, Parents and Spectators)

All parents, players and spectators will conduct themselves in an orderly, sportsmanlike and professional manner when attending all Capital City Viper League or Non-League games.

Points of Emphasis: Parents

- Always display good sportsmanship. Always respect players, coaches and officials.
- Act appropriately; do not taunt or disturb other fans.
- Cheer good plays of all participants, avoid booing opponents.
- Cheer in a positive manner and encourage fair play

Points of Emphasis: Players

- Work to improve your skills
- Be a team player-get along with your teammates
- Learn teamwork, sportsmanship, and discipline
- Be on time for practices and games
- Notify your coach if you will not make a practice or game
- Learn the rules, and play by them
- Respect your coach, teammates, your parents, opponents, and officials
- Never argue with officials' decisions.

Inappropriate and disruptive behavior, including but not limited to the following, will not be tolerated:

1. Use of obscene or vulgar language in a boisterous manner to anyone at any time.
2. Taunting of players, coaches, officials or other spectators by means of baiting, ridiculing, threat of physical violence or physical violence.
3. Parents going on the ice
4. Parents going into the referees' locker room or opposing team's locker room.

The disciplinary committee will review all incidents involving players, coaches, officials and parents pertaining to the Capital City Viper Youth Hockey Club. The ruling committee can impose warnings, parent and/or player suspensions and/or expulsion from the Capital City Viper Youth Hockey Club.

In addition to the above code of conduct, all players, parents or other family members must recognize the Code of Conduct set forth by the Delaware Valley Hockey League (DVHL), the Capital City Viper Youth Hockey Club governing body. Players, parents or other family members will be responsible for any sanctions (fines, suspensions, etc...) imposed on the Capital City Viper Youth Hockey Club due to their non-compliance with the DVHLs Code of Conduct.

I/We have read, understand and agree to abide by all by-laws, rules and/or regulations set up by the Capital City Viper Youth Hockey Club and the Delaware Valley Hockey League.
